

features

- Spring Style Faves
- Good Jeans
- Music Notes

slide-shows

- Victorian Decor
- Fashion for all Seasons
- Pimped Out

online-only

- Degrassi: The Next Generation airs its 100th episode
- Josh Hartnett is back in Lucky Number Slevin
- U.K. artist KT Tunstall makes her Canadian debut

enter to win

Win the dresses worn by our Degrassi cover girls in our Spring 2006 issue

SPECIAL OFFER
SAVE 54% off the cover price
click here

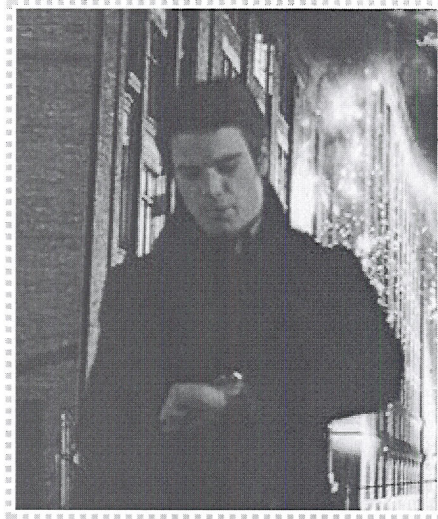

vj search

Get the inside scoop with Sara Duck!

CLICK HERE!

SHOPPING FEATURE

Lucky Number Slevin

Josh Hartnett returns in this sharp and stylish thriller

LUCKY NUMBER SLEVIN (Alliance Atlantis)

A case of mistaken identity lands Slevin (Josh Hartnett) into a pile of trouble—he owes money to two warring mob bosses, The Rabbi (Ben Kingsley) and The Boss (Morgan Freeman), and an infamous assassin no one's ever seen, Mr. Goodkat (Bruce Willis), is on Slevin's tail. It's kill or be killed as Slevin hatches his own twisted plot to get out of this mess alive.

Hartnett has never been better in this violent but sharp and stylish thriller, embodying Slevin with charm, emotion and a terrific sense of comedic timing. Nor has he looked better—broken nose and all—as he begins the ascent from boy heartthrob to handsome leading man. Love interest Lucy Liu (playing Lindsey) is fun and flirty, and the chemistry between them feels totally genuine. However, if you're squeamish about blood (or still waiting to turn 18) this isn't the choice for your Friday night flick. Let's hope this very entertaining film is the beginning of more great work from Hartnett.

Kate Yorga

Photo courtesy Alliance Atlantis

print this

send to a friend

special offer
4 ISSUES FOR ONLY $6.95!

SUBSCRIBE TO F18
GIVE F18 AS A GIFT
CUSTOMER SERVICE
NEWSLETTER SIGNUP

